Monitoring the market for oil and gas assets

September 2003

Continuous market presence,

Global network of relationships,

Deep technical, operations and execution

expertise—that's . . .

The Power of Experience.

Randall & Dewey is the oil and gas industry's leading advisor for divestitures, mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance and management consulting. More than half of the world's most successful energy companies call Randall & Dewey their trusted advisor. No other firm offers comparable abilities—transaction advice and execution, management and financial guidance backed by deep technical expertise and a global network of industry relationships.

Randall & Dewey is involved in more projects and maintains closer contact with the industry than any other energy advisor. This continuous market presence produces intimate knowledge of the needs, motivations and negotiating styles of almost every player in the industry—both the companies and the decision-makers within them.

Our depth of experience, enhanced by our new division, Carnrite Consulting Group, Ltd., enables Randall & Dewey to provide management advice ranging from rigorous portfolio reviews and strategy design to benchmarking, business-model development and cost reduction programs.

Clients choose Randall & Dewey to . . .

- handle asset sales, trades or purchases
- initiate and execute corporate mergers and acquisitions
- find funding for projects and companies and create optimal commercial and financial structures
- provide advice on maximizing the value of upstream portfolios and strategies to improve performance and profitability

The firm's more than 100 geoscientists, engineers, transaction specialists, management experts and financial professionals represent the world's largest, most experienced advisory group dedicated to oil and gas.

WHO'S WHO IN E&P A&D

September 2003

Within these pages you'll find billions of barrels of reserves and millions of production in North America and abroad. The more than 100 companies listed here and their go-to executives for conversations about buying and selling assets range from the majors—including BP, Shell, ConocoPhillips and ChevronTexaco—to large independents, such as Anadarko, Devon, Burlington and Unocal, to small producers as well as firms that are interested primarily in overriding royalties.

Also within these pages, you'll find a list of dozens of A&D advisory firms to help you market your assets and find assets. Some are able to raise capital to fund your deals as well.

Also provided is an index of oil-company A&D professionals by what sports and other activities they enjoy. Wanting to put a golf game together? A hunting or fishing trip? A tennis tournament? Refer to this index of more than 400 of your peers.

And if you're not listed in this directory, e-mail me (ndarbonne@chemweek.com) for a form so your information is included in monthly updates as inserts to A&D Watch newsletter, the industry's comprehensive source of information on A&D activity in the E&P industry.

Meanwhile, make a deal!

A&D WATCH

Monitoring the market for oil and gas assets

August 2003, Vol. 17, No. 8

A&D Marketplace Notes

Willamette restructuring. The Williams Cos.' asset sales continue, in its journey back to its core business: interstate gas pipelines, gas gathering and processing, and E&P.

"We were trying to avoid a fire sale, but when your house is on fire, you don't have much choice," Phillip D. Wright, senior vice president and chief restructuring officer, said in a recent Houston presentation.

The lessons learned? "You can't engender loyalty in a crisis—you've got to earn it now, beforehand. You've got to have people who are clearly in your camp...And you can't have your balance sheet stretched so tightly that you can't take a sucker punch once in a while."

Competing with Chesapeake. To grow in the Midcontinent is especially difficult, in the wake of region consolidator Chesapeake Energy Corp. "We're competing with Chesapeake head-to-head right now," says one operator. "It's tough. Our only hope is they will one day slow down."

Too little. One operator who is looking for assets in the Permian Basin and elsewhere says price has not been a hurdle. He hasn't found properties for sale that have garnered his interest to get so far as to dicker. (Cont. on p. 46)

Recent Prices

Basin	Price (BOE/Proved)
San Juan	$5.63
Rockies	$8.75
Permian Basin	$7.89
Midcontinent	$8.29
South Texas	$6.15
Gulf Coast	$8.12
Gulf of Mexico	$8.53
