Nearly 500 acquisition and divestiture professionals are profiled in these pages this year in our third annual directory of go-to personnel within E&P companies for buying and selling assets. They represent some 300 companies—some familiar, some new.

For example, the team at Plano, Texas-based Cortez Oil & Gas can now be found at Grayhawk Energy, and the managers of Midland-based Permian Resources have started Stanolind Oil & Gas.

Apache's Lisa Stewart is now at El Paso Corp., and Apache's John Christmann is back at the task of A&D for Apache. Geoff Roberts was in the 2002 directory with Pennsylvania General Energy; you'll find him now representing Centurion Exploration, a Houston-based upstart. Anadarko's John Seitz is back this year too—with Ocean Energy's Bill Transier at their new North Sea-focused Endeavour International.

Some familiar names are gone this year: Nuevo is now part of Plains E&P; North Coast Energy was purchased by Exco Resources; Beta Oil & Gas is now part of Petrohawk Energy; Pure Resources was reabsorbed by Unocal; Tom Brown can now be found under EnCana Corp.; Westport Resources is now part of Kerr-McGee; Wiser Oil is now part of Forest Oil; Ultima Energy Trust is now part of Petrofund; and Equity Oil, is now part of Whiting Petroleum.

The integrated oils are represented here: BP, ExxonMobil, Shell, Total, ChevronTexaco, ConocoPhillips, Marathon, Murphy, Amerada Hess, Kerr-McGee, Occidental and Unocal.

The largest U.S. independents are here too, including Devon, Anadarko, Apache, Chesapeake, XTO Energy, Pioneer, Pogo, Burlington, Range, Cabot, EOG, Vintage, Cimarex, Magnum Hunter, Newfield, Stone, Swift and Forest.

And, several Canadian companies are included: EnCana, Nexen, Enerplus, Provident and Vermilion, to name a few.

We hope you find the 2004 directory useful. Indexes are by company and contact name. And, you'll find a directory of A&D Advisory Firms here as well.

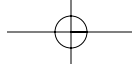

Until our September 2005 update, may all your deals be good ones.
